W. ELLIOT WOODWARD,
ROXBURY, MASS.,
DEALER IN AMERICAN & FOREIGN COINS, MEDALS & TOKENS.

Constantly on hand a great variety of
WASHINGTONS, COLONIALS, PATTERN PIECES,
AND THE
REGULAR ISSUES OF THE UNITED STATES MINT.

Having always in stock a large collection of coins, most ordinary pieces, and many of great rarity, can be furnished to order.

Parcels of coins forwarded, for examination and selection, to parties known to me, or furnishing suitable references.

Large or small collections purchased for cash, at liberal prices.

Cabinets arranged and catalogued; collections prepared for sale by auction or otherwise; auction sales attended in New York, Boston, and Philadelphia, and purchases made for the usual commission.

Correspondence solicited with all who wish to buy, sell, or exchange coins.

Priced, and priced and named Catalogues, furnished to order, of all the principal coin sales ever held in this country.

Early printed, rare, and curious American Books wanted; also, Local Histories, and books relating to WASHINGTON: for any of which a reasonable price will be paid, or a liberal exchange given in books or coins. For the purpose of exchanging, I have purchased the balance of the editions of several scarce books, and have besides had printed, at the Riverside, Munsell, Bradstreet and Wilson presses, limited editions of several valuable works.

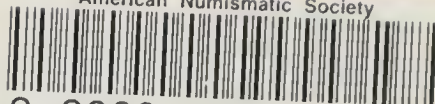

Fifty copies of this Catalogue for Collectors have been printed on extra tinted paper; they will be neatly priced as soon after the sale as possible, and furnished to order for 50 cents each. A few will be sold unpriced at 25 cents each.

Special Notice.—I desire to buy now, a large collection of Coins and Medals, also, in large or small lots, any or all of the following articles:—BRIC-A-BRAC, Porcelains, Pottery, Arms, Armor, Stone Implements, Mound Builders' Pottery, Aboriginal Relics of every description, Autographs, Rare and Curious Books, particularly those printed in America prior to 1700, Town Histories and all books relating to local affairs in any town in the United States, Trials and Miscellaneous Pamphlets, Sermons, Eulogies, Orations, Funeral Discourses, &c., United States Fractional Currency, Continental and Confederate Money, Bills of Broken Banks and Paper Money of all descriptions, Coin Catalogues, Amateur Papers and Books, and all publications relating to Coins and Postage or Revenue Stamps:—in short everything that is valued by Collectors.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

In September next I shall sell, at Auction in New York City, the Coin Collections of Seth E. Pecker and Henry D. Gerds, together with a great variety of other things interesting to Collectors. Catalogues will be ready in August.
